[COMMUNICATED,

Alexandria Bible Society. A meeting of this Society was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Washington street, on Tuesday evening, June 14, 1859. Rev. ELIAS HARRISON took the Chair, and called the meeting to order.

Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Wills. The Chairman stated that the object of the most ing was for the purpose of adopting a Constitution, and for the election of the proper Officers under said Constitution, to take charge of the interests of the Society for the time clapsing until the next anniversary meeting.

The committee to whom was referred the prepar ation of a Constitution for the government of the Society, reported for action the printed one pub-lished by the American Bible Society for auxiliaries. Pending the motion for its adoption, Rev. James May, D. D., seconded the motion in a very interesting and deeply impressive address, and upon the vote being taken, said Constitution was adopted unanimously.

The committee on nominations reported through for Officers of the Society: REV. ELIAS HARRISON, D. D., President. REV. GEORGE A. SMITH, Vice President. JAMES ENTWISLE, Jr., Secretary. JOSEPH M. STEVENS, Treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. - Rich. M. Smith, Wm. H. Fowle, William Miller, Robert Bell, Cussius F. Lee, Thos. McCormick, Sylvester Scott.

Pending the adoption of the report, David Funsten, esq., arose, and, in seconding the motion, made a highly interesting and instructive address, and upon taking the vote, the above nominations were unanimously confirmed. On motion of Rev. Mr. Lanahan, it was Resolved. That the Secretary, as soon as practicable, call the Executive Committee together, and that they be, and are hereby requested, to proceed at once upon the discharge of the functions imposed upon them by the provisions of the Con-

On motion of the same gentleman, it was Resolved. That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the City papers.

The Chicago Times of Saturday says:-"The history of our grain market during the last three days affords a striking picture of the uncertainty of all human affairs, and especially of the absolute futility of basing commercial operations on any fixed and general rules. During that time, we have had the news of a great and decisive battle in Europe, and serious, if not alarming ac onuts of the damage done to the growing crops by frost. Yet in the face of these two facts, wheat here has declined fully ten ets. The decline of yesterday alone was fully five ets. The sales amounted to 30,000 bushels at $1(a.$1.02 for standard spring. Corn was firmer, and 30,000 bushels sold at 67(6,68c, for No. 1 Railroad corn in store, and 69(4)72c. for prime River corn. Flour was dull and drooping. Richmond, Va., nov 4-wly INDEN WHISKEY.—This WHISKEY is made in the old fashioned copper still, by double distillation, just beyond the summit of the Blue Ridge, in Warren county, Va., near the line of Fau-quier, where the softness and purity of the moun tain spring water, and the quality of the rye, con-stitute important elements in making the Whiskey for which this locality has been long celebrated. It is perfectly pure, beyond all doubt, being made ex clusively of rye, hops, and barley-malt, with the utmost care. The quantity made is limited, and bought principally for private use, by gentlemen connoissicurs in the surrounding counties, who are critically nice in laying by a stock for improvement. A small consignment has lately been made to MARSHALL & WARD, of Alexandria; or it can be procured direct, through correspondence with DR. FISHER, of Linden, Warren County, Va. oct 25-eotf FOR SALE—My farm in Fauquier county, containing by a recent survey, FOUR HUNDRED AND FORTY-SIX ACRES and 29 poles. This land lies on the Rappahannock river, about a quarter of a mile from the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and in an excellent neighborhood. There are on it, a very convenient DWELLING HOUSE, spacious barn, and other out houses, all in good repair. A never failing spring of pure water, is within forty yards of the house-ice-house, and ice-pond, as near. The fields not in cultivation, are well set in grass, and taking into view its close proximity to the Railroad, Post Office, Grist Mill (a mile off,) and other advantages, this farm may be safely recommended as very desirable property. Any one wishing to see the said farm will be shown it by Mr. H. T. Embry on the Terms made known by JOHN S. KNOX. Alexandria, Va. ap 30-entf
